13. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Teaching Assistant.

- Coolness
- Critical so you work your ass off

- Extremely helpful during Labs, I did not personally have Vineet as a TA
- H'e just amazing. Great speaker, great guy. Fun and smart!
- He's accessible outside of class and really cares about the students.
- Keeps track of time well.
- Seemed very passionate about the concepts being taught.
- Seems passionate about the subject matter.
- Supportive and his feedback is very constructive
- Understands the material and teaches well. I felt like his advice regarding the class could be trusted.
- Very clear and candid.
- Very poised and knowledgeable. Great insights in studio

14. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Teaching Assistant.

- Can come off a bit harsh to people who are not used to more assertive TA's, but I was fine with t
- Critical so you think even if you work your ass off you'll fail
- Grades a bit too strictly in my opinion.
- Grades too harshly.
- Hard grader
- He didn't really help us do well as groups. The whole class is basically a group project, but for the group assignment he basically just let us loose so not everyone talked with each other and people were just trying to make groups quickly. Also it seemed that we did not get a solid critique on our group until later in the quarter when it was almost too late.
- Inconsistency in grading throughout the assignment.
- None that are really his fault; I wish he had more power over grading or other logistics of the course. My group consistently did subpar work that negatively affected my grade (if they did work at all), and Vineet did his best to help, but I don't think that he could do much. I should've just done all the work myself instead of trying to delegate the work to others.
- Sometimes I feel like he grades too hard.
